IMPORTANT INFORMATION: TIMELY NOTIFICATION OF EVENTS IN THE UNIVERSITY

Attention: Heads of Departments/Directorates/Centres/Units/Chairmen of Organising Committees

The Centre for Information and Public Relations (CIPR) has observed the practice by some Departments/ Directorates/Centres of sending very short notices of invitation to the Centre to provide some of its services such as coverage and or anchorage of events. In some instances, members of staff of the Centre are "highjacked" merely minutes to such programmes/events or invited through "the backdoor" without any formal notice.

This development seriously hampers proper planning, and by implication, the quality of service delivery of the Centre.

Against this background, the University Community is hereby notified that all invitations to the Centre for Information and Public Relations (CIPR) to provide its services at pre-scheduled events (save those directly from members of the University Management) must be received latest 72 hours before the event. Please note further, that the Centre would not entertain any invitation to pre-scheduled event that is not formally conveyed through an official memo, latest 72 hours before the event.

NB: This notice excludes events that are for publicity only.
